

Flexible Remanufacturing Using AI and Advanced Robotics for Circular Value Chains in EU Industry – RENÉE

RENÉE aims to transform the remanufacturing process within EU industry, leveraging advanced robotics and AI for flexible remanufacturing within circular value chains, while simultaneously prioritizing workforce upskilling through personalized educational platforms and operator support technologies.

Remanufacturing Cases

Household Appliances

Electrical Motors

Robotics

Bicycles

Consortium

Follow Us

Project Coordinator

Laboratory for Manufacturing Systems and Automation (LMS),
University of Patras, Greece

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon Europe Framework Programme under grant agreement n° 101138415.